HEINRICH BÖLL FOUNDATION NORTH AMERICA

The Heinrich Boell Foundation cordially invites you to

LAST EXIT BALI? -

HOW TO PUT THE JOHANNESBURG PROCESS BACK ON TRACK

Date: Thursday, April 25

Time: 4pm - 6pm

Place: Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Root
Room, 1779 Massachusetts Avenue, Washington DC

Two weeks after the third WSSD-PrepCom in New York with all its difficulties, the preparations for the fourth PrepCom in Bali are underway. The deadlock of New York and the risk of running the Johannesburg Summit against the wall can only be prevented by re-focusing on the initial goals of the Rio-Process, and by a strong effort of civil society to push governments back on the right track to Johannesburg.

NGO representatives from Africa, the Middle East, South America, and the United States evaluate the results of the third WSSD PrepCom, lay out the key aspects and crucially needed actions for Bali, and wish to discuss with all participants what can be done in the short time before Bali in order to save the World Summit for Sustainable Development.

Please join us in a fruitful discussion and strategy session on the road to Bali.

Sincerely,

Marc Berthold
Program Director
North South Dialogue Program
